19 April 2023

Dear Sirs

Our client: Willis Lease Finance Corporation

ESNs 575195, 697262, 697519 and 779168 (“the Engines”)

We refer to our letter of 6 April 2023 regarding the above Engines, the Notices of Default served and your contractual obligation to return the Engines in return condition forthwith.

We are most concerned that you have disregarded the grounding notices that have been served on you. You have failed to return the Engines and instead are actively operating the Engines. Your intentional breaches and the continued use of the Engines is clear evidence that PIA is seeking to prevent our client’s rights to its property. Your refusal to comply also amounts to tortious interference in our client’s property.

Your behaviour creates cross defaults on your other obligations and is sufficiently serious that our client considers it appropriate for the wider international aviation industry to be made aware of it so that other Western companies are not also adversely impacted by your disregard of contractual obligations and your failure to return our client’s property. This may include other lessors, fuel companies, IATA, relevant airports whose operations may be disrupted by steps our client appears to be forced to take and those airlines with whom you have relationships.

Our client reserves its position to seize any PIA aircraft given your apparent intention to frustrate our client’s steps to recover its assets and be paid. In the meantime, please confirm by return that you will accept service of process by email and/or that you have instructed lawyers in the UK to accept service of process on your behalf and if so, provide their details by return.
